

Chapin Women in Service Have Heart

BY BECKY GALLMAN, LOCAL RESIDENT

Members of CWS showed their hearts for service by decorating and personalizing a total of 96 Valentine cards for residents of Generations in Chapin. The recipients included both those who live in assisted living as well as independent living and making it even sweeter. A heart-shaped lollipop was in every envelope.

Chapin Women in Service also have a heart for learning and creating beautiful things. Under the leadership of two member artists, Susan Brush and Sue Keener, they created beautiful bottle lamps. The designs on each masterpiece reflected what was in the heart and mind on that day.

Chapin Women in Service is an IRS, and state-recognized charity focused on serving our greater Chapin community. We serve by giving of our time and raising money for meaningful local projects. Socializing and friendship are an essential part of the organization, but as a charity, our mission is service.
